AGREEMENT

Musicians agree to provide live music, and any needed sound equipment, for event on location, date and time agreed. Musicians agree to arrive early enough to set up and tune at no additional charge. Musicians are willing to share time with other performers or play recordings for vocalists. Musicians will not play music with or for other performers unless previously agreed. Client agrees to provide reasonable space with protection from questionable weather. Client agrees to pay for these services starting with a deposit accompanying this agreement. Balance is due seven days before the event. Should cancellation occur by either Client or Musician because of death, serious illness or genuine emergency, deposit will be returned. Deposit is forfeited if Client changes the date, time, location, services stated in this agreement or cancels for a non-emergency reason. If date and time are booked by another Client, deposit can be returned. Should a Client's check have insufficient funds, Client agrees to pay any collection fees.

Dates and times are reserved with a deposit on a first come - first serve basis. A letter is mailed to the client confirming date and time and receipt of deposit. By signing this agreement, the Client indicates concurrence with this agreement and that it has been both read and understood.
